ALAN CLARKE has over twenty-five years experience as a flautist in symphony orchestras, bands and as soloist in recitals, radio and T. V. both in Canada and the United Kingdom. He now makes his home in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He has appeared in concerts with Louis Moyse in Edmonton and Red Deer, Alberta. In the Spring of 1979 he performed the Telemann concerto for two flutes in E minor with Louis Moyse in Edmonton. At the same concert they gave the western Canadian premiere of "Une Affaire de Famille" for seven flutes and piano written by Louis Moyse. Mr. Clarke continues his association with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra in his twenty-fifth season as piccolo player.

He teaches flute and ensemble classes at the University of Alberta and directs the university flute ensemble which has won many awards at music festivals in Western Canada. His activities also include adjudicating at music festivals in Alberta and Saskatchewan. In addition he is an examiner for the Western Board of Music.

Mr. Clarke's studies in music were completed at the Royal College of Music in London, England and with Hans Brinkmann, formerly principal flute with the Hamburg State Opera. He is also a graduate of the University of Alberta where he holds annual flute workshops and seminars for young musicians.
